Re: Document No. 37, Motion For Stay Pending Service of Answer

Ruling: DENIED. Where, as here, one of the defendants controls whether plaintiff gets his mail and claims it never got a copy from defense counsel, it is incumbent on the state to make sure prisoners get mail from the AG's office. This is the second instance in six months where the prison denies getting mail from the AG's office for a prisoner which suggests that the AG's office might double check that its administrative staff is in fact sending hard copies to prisoners when it makes ECF filings.
